HORATIO KING, of Maine, First Assistant Postmaster General—Appointments.
WILLIAM H. DUNDAS, of Virginia, Second Assistant Postmaster General—Mail Arrangement.
JOHN MARRON, of Georgia, Third Assistant Postmaster General—Finances.

THOMAS M. TATE, of Virginia, Auditor of the Treasury of the Post Office Dep't.—Settlement of Accounts.

CHAPTER III.

ORGANIZATION OF THE DEPARTMENT.

THE direction and management of the Post Office Department are assigned by the Constitution and laws to the Postmaster General. That its business may be the more conveniently arranged and prepared for his final action, it is distributed among several bureaus, as follows: The Appointment Office, in charge of the First Assistant Postmaster General; the Contract Office, in charge of the Second Assistant Postmaster General; the Finance Office, in charge of the Third Assistant Postmaster General; and the Inspection Office, in charge of the Chief Clerk.

APPOINTMENT OFFICE.—The First Assistant Postmaster General has eighteen clerks. To this office are assigned all questions which relate to the establishment and discontinuance of post offices, changes of sites and names, appointment and removal of postmasters, and route and local agents, as also, the giving of instructions to postmasters. To this bureau is likewise assigned the supervision of the ocean mail steamship lines, and of the foreign and international postal arrangements.

CONTRACT OFFICE.—The Second Assistant Postmaster General has twenty-six clerks. To this office is assigned the business of arranging the mail service of the United States, and placing the same under contract, embracing all correspondence and proceedings respecting the frequency of trips, mode of conveyance, and times of departures and arrivals on all the routes; the course of the mail between the different sections of the country, the points of mail distribution, and the regulations for the government of the domestic mail service of the United States. All applications for the establishment or alteration of mail arrangements, and the appointment of mail messengers, should be sent to this office.

FINANCE OFFICE.—The Third Assistant Postmaster General has twenty-five clerks. To this office is assigned that portion of the supervision and management of the financial business of the Department not devolved by law upon the Auditor, embracing accounts with the draft offices and other depositaries of the Department, the issuing of warrants and drafts in payment of balances reported by the Auditor to be due to mail contractors and other persons, the supervision of the accounts of offices under orders to deposit their quarterly balances at designated points, and the superintendence of the rendition by postmasters of their quarterly returns of postages. It has charge of the dead-letter office, of the issuing of postage stamps and stamped envelopes for the prepayment of postage, and of the accounts connected therewith.

INSPECTION OFFICE.—The Chief Clerk has eighteen clerks. To this office is assigned the duty of receiving and examining the registers of the arrivals and departures of the mails, certificates of the service of route agents, and reports of mail failures; of noting the delinquencies of contractors, and preparing cases thereon for the action of the Postmaster General; furnishing blanks for mail registers, and reports of mail failures; providing and sending out mail-bags, and mail-locks and keys, and doing all other things which may be necessary to secure a faithful and exact performance of mail contracts.

All cases of mail depredation, or violation of law by private expresses, or by the forging or illegal use of postage stamps, are under the supervision of this office, and should be reported to it.

CHAPTER IV.

LETTER POSTAGES.

1. THE law requires the postage on all letters to be prepaid by stamps, or stamped envelopes, except those to foreign countries, and those on official business to government officers having the franking privilege. But prepayment on drop letters (not to be mailed) is optional.

2. Single letters passing in the mails distances not over 3,000 miles, between offices in the United States, are to be charged three cents; and for distances over 3,000 miles, ten cents. Double letters are charged double these rates; treble ones, treble, and so on.

3. Letters passing from one office to another within the United States or Territories, also those going between places in the United States and the British North American Provinces, are rated as single if not exceeding half an ounce in weight; double if exceeding half an ounce but not exceeding an ounce; treble if exceeding an ounce but not exceeding an ounce and a half, and so on.

4. Drop letters are charged one cent each.

5. Single letters to or from any of the British North American Provinces are charged ten cents for distances not exceeding 3,000 miles, and for greater distances fifteen cents. Double letters pay double, and treble ones treble these rates.

6. It is unlawful to place in a post office, to be transmitted by mail, within the United States, an envelope or packet containing letters addressed to different persons.

7. Handbills, circulars, or other printed matter, containing any manuscript writing, are subject to letter postage; so are all packets so closely enveloped, or sealed, that their contents can not be known.

8. Advertised letters are charged one cent additional to the ordinary postage.

9. Letters brought by ships and packets to ports in the United States, or passing from one port therein to another, are to be rated six cents each, when delivered from the office at which they were first received; when forwarded thence by mail to other offices (instead of said six cents) simply, two cents in addition to the ordinary rates of postage.

10. The charge to the persons addressed upon letters and packets received at post offices from the masters, clerks, or other employees of steamboats, on waters deemed post routes, is the same as if they had been conveyed on land routes.

11. The act of March 3, 1855, making no provision for unpaid letters to places within the United States on the same or day following any such unpaid letter or letters being put into a post office, the postmaster thereof is instructed to give notice, upon blanks furnished by the Post Office Department, to all persons within the United States for whom such letters shall have been deposited in their offices; and if not attended to in one month, they return such letters to the Dead Letter Office.

12. Letters mailed in the cars can be prepaid only by using postage stamps, or stamped envelopes; and when not thus prepaid, it is the duty of postmasters to treat all such letters as unpaid, although marked "paid"—no route agent being permitted to receive prepayment in money.

13. Letters part paid are dispatched, charged with the additional postage due at the prepaid rate, according to distance, established by said act, except where the omission to pay the correct amount is known to have been intentional, when they are treated the same as letters wholly unpaid.

CHAPTER V.

POSTAGE ON PRINTED MATTER.

1. THE postage on each newspaper, periodical, unsealed circular, or other article of printed matter (except books), not over three ounces in weight, going by mail to any place in the United States, is one cent, and one cent additional for each additional ounce or fraction of an ounce. Only one half of these rates is charged when the postage is paid quarterly or yearly in advance.

2. Packages of small newspapers, published monthly or oftener, and pamphlets not containing more than sixteen octavo pages, sent to one address, and weighing at least half a pound, prepaid by postage stamps, are rated at half a cent an ounce.

3. All printed matter, chargeable by weight, is to be weighed when dry.

4. Books bound, or unbound, not weighing over four pounds, are chargeable at the rate of one cent an ounce for distances under 3,000 miles, and two cents an ounce for greater distances.

5. Each newspaper or periodical, not over one ounce and a half in weight, to any place in the State of its publication, is chargeable with half a cent postage.

6. Publishers of newspapers and periodicals may send to each other from their publication offices one copy of the same free of postage, and may inclose therein to actual subscribers bills and receipts for such publicatiens without postage charge.

7. The publishers of weekly newspapers may send to each actual subscriber within the county of publication, one copy thereof free of postage.

8. Newspapers and other printed matter can not be sent at the foregoing rates, unless without covers or wrappers, or in covers or wrappers open at the ends or sides, so that the character of their contents may be known; or, if any word or communication be printed on the same, after their publication, or any writing or other marks be placed thereon, or on the covers or wrappers, except the names and address of the persons to whom they are sent; or, if any paper, or other thing, be inclosed in or with such printed matter.

9. Quarterly Rates of Postage, when paid Quarterly or Yearly in Advance, on Newspapers and Periodicals, to actual Subscribers.

10. If the publisher of any newspaper or periodical, after being three months previously notified that his publication is not taken out of the office to which it is sent for delivery, continue to forward such publication in the mail, the postmaster to whose office such publication is sent is to dispose of the same for the postage, unless the publisher shall pay it; and whenever any printed matter of any description, received during one quarter of the fiscal year, shall have remained in the office without being called for during the whole of any succeeding quarter, the postmaster at such office is to give such notice to the publisher; and if he fail to pay the postage thereon within a reasonable time, is to sell the same and credit the proceeds of such sale in his quarterly accounts in the usual manner. A similar course is to be pursued in reference to pamphlets and magazines published periodically.

11. Quarterly payments in advance may be made either at the mailing office or the office of delivery. When made at such mailing office, at the commencement of a year or of a quarter (as he may elect), the publisher must prepare and hand to the postmaster, ready for signature, a receipt for each post office to which the papers are to be sent for delivery, stating the number of papers to be sent to such post office, and the amount of postage to be paid thereon; also, giving the names of each of the subscribers.

In respect to the British mails, where the official postage entries on the letters received are in red ink, the letter is to be considered as paid, and is to be delivered accordingly; where in black ink, as unpaid, and the postage is to be collected. Postage in such cases is either wholly paid or wholly unpaid. The credit and debit figures on such letters show, on paid letters, the amount to be credited to the United States; on the unpaid letters, the amount charged to the United States

Pamphlets and periodicals two cents each, if not weighing over two ounces, and four cents an ounce or fraction of an ounce if they exceed two ounces, to be collected in all cases in the United States. All such printed matter is subject to like additional charges in Great Britain, each country collecting its own postage on printed matter, whether the same is sent or received. No pamphlet can be sent weighing over eight ounces, and no periodical over sixteen ounces, without being subject to letter postage. Neither pamphlets nor periodicals are entitled to conveyance through England, except such as are addressed to France, Algeria, or cities of Turkey, Syria, and Egypt, in which France has post offices.

UNITED STATES AND FRANCE.

On either a letter or packet of any weight the whole postage or none at all should be prepaid. No account is taken of prepayments of fractional parts of a single rate.

In respect to French mails, where the official postage entries on the letters received are in red ink, with the impression P D also stamped in red ink, the letter is to be considered as paid, and is to be delivered accordingly; on the contrary, when the official entries are in black ink, the letter is to be considered as unpaid, and the postage is to be collected. The credit and debit figures on such letters show, on the paid letters, the amount to be credited to the United States; on the unpaid letters, the amount charged to the United States by France; and these figures, "3 cents," "6 cents," "9 cents," "12 cents," etc., are solely for the convenience of the exchange offices in keeping the account with the French office.

Newspapers, periodical works, books stitched or bound, pamphlets, catalogues, papers of music, prospectuses, circulars, and all other kinds of printed matter addressed to France, Algeria, or cities of Turkey, Syria, and Egypt, in which France has post offices—viz.: Alexandria, Alexandretta, Beyrout, Constantinople, Dardanelles, Gallipoli, Jaffa, Latakia, Messina (Asiatic Turkey), Mitylene, Rhodes, Salonica, Smyrna, and Tripoli in Syria—can be dispatched to France direct, or by way of England, on prepayment of the United States postage, viz.: newspapers, 2 cents each; periodical works, catalogues, or pamphlets, 1 cent an ounce or fraction of an ounce; and all other kinds of printed matter the same as domestic rates, to be in all cases collected in the United States, whether sent or received. France in like manner collects its own postage on all kinds of printed matter, whether sent or received. The United States exchange offices for French mail are New York, Boston, Philadelphia, and San Francisco.

This is the United States postage only.

postage to and from the line; which postage must be collected at the office of mailing in the United States on matter sent, and at the office of delivery in the United States on matter received. In like manner, such matter, if transient, is chargeable with the regular domestic transient printed matter rates to and from the line, to be collected at the office of mailing or delivery in the United States, as the case may be. Editors, however, may exchange free of expense.

Letters received from Canada, to which are affixed United States postage stamps of sufficient value to prepay the full postage chargeable thereon, should be delivered without charge by the United States offices.

TO THE SANDWICH ISLANDS, ETC.

China New South Wales Sandwich Islands By mail to San Francisco, thence by private ship	10 cents; being the United States postage to San Francisco. Prepayment required.

Newspapers and periodicals must be prepaid the regular domestic rates to San Francisco. The rate payable on letters at the point of destination in the Sandwich Islands is 5 cents, and on newspapers, 2 cents each. In China and New South Wales the ship postage, it is understood, is comparatively trifling.

ROUTES OF TRANSMISSION, ETC.

To prevent mistakes at the exchange offices, it is desirable that the particular routes by which letters are to be forwarded from the United States to Europe, should be distinctly written on the covers. Letters intended for transmission in the open mail to England, should bear the direction, "Open mail via England;" if for transmission in the French mail, they should be directed "via France in French mail;" if for transmission by closed mail to Prussia, they should be directed "via Prussian closed mail;" and if for transmission by the New York and Bremen line to Bremen, they should be directed "via Bremen."

It is important that letters addressed to Germany and other European countries via France, where the single rate per quarter ounce is 21 cents, should be plainly marked to be sent via France, otherwise they may be mis-sent in the open mail to Liverpool by the United States packet; the 21 cents rate per half ounce being also chargeable on letters thus forwarded.

REGISTRATION OF LETTERS.

Valuable letters addressed to Germany or any part of the German Austrian Postal Union, by the Bremen line via New York, or by the Prussian closed mail via New York and Boston, as also letters addressed to Great Britain and Canada, will be registered, on the application of the person posting the same, in the same manner and on the same terms as those deliverable in the United States, provided that the full postage chargeable thereon to destination, together with a registration fee of five cents on each letter, is prepaid at the mailing office. Such letters should be mailed and forwarded to the respective United States exchange offices in the same manner as domestic registered letters are mailed to those offices.

RULE OF RATING LETTERS, ETC.

All letters to and from foreign countries (France and the British North American Provinces excepted) are to be charged with single rate of postage, if not exceeding the weight of half an ounce; double rate, if exceeding half an ounce, but not exceeding an ounce; quadruple rate, if exceeding an ounce but not exceeding two ounces, and so on, charging two rates for every ounce or fractional part of an ounce over the first ounce. As this rule differs from that followed in respect to domestic letters, great care is requisite to prevent mistakes. Letters in the mail to France are to be charged with single rate of postage, if not exceeding the weight of one quarter ounce; double rate, if exceeding a quarter but not exceeding half an ounce, and so on, an additional rate being charged for each quarter ounce or fractional part of a quarter ounce. Letters addressed to the British North American Provinces are rated in the same manner as domestic letters, one rate being charged for each half ounce or fractional part of half an ounce. Postmasters should be careful, where the postage is prepaid, to collect the proper amount. They should be particular to notice the route indicated on the envelopes of letters, and to collect postage accordingly. Letters mailed at some offices, marked "via England," or "via Prussian closed mail," for a German State, are frequently taken upon the prepayment of Bremen rates, and those marked "via Bremen," at Prussian closed mail rates, etc. If letters for foreign countries, marked "paid," are dropped into the post office without being paid, the postmaster will erase the word "paid," and write on the back of the letter the words "not paid," with his name and title of postmaster.

RULE OF RATING LETTERS GOING VIA FRANCE.

In the case of letters to be forwarded in the British mail "via Marseilles," the French postage is rated at six cents the quarter ounce, except with reference to letters for Syria and Tunis, by French packet, when the single French rate is twelve cents. The French rate on all such letters must therefore be doubled for each quarter of an ounce in weight.

The rates by "French mail" are in full to destination, except to the following places, viz.: Aden, Batavia, Ceylon, China, Corfu, countries to which correspondence can be sent via Suez, countries beyond seas via France other than those enumerated, East Indies, Gibraltar, Hong Kong, Ionian Islands, Java, Mauritius, Penang, Portugal, Isle of Re-Union, Shanghae, Singapore, and Spain. The limit of prepayment to Spain, Portugal, and Gibraltar, is Behobia; to Corfu and Ionian Islands, Trieste; to Aden, East Indies, Ceylon, China, and other countries via Suez, the seaports of the Indies or of the Sea of China, to which the English packets ply; and to places beyond seas other than those designated, the limit is the port of arrival in the country of destination.

Letters may be forwarded in the French mails to Moldavia, Wallachia, and Turkey in Europe, by way of France and Austria, but the postage thereon must in all cases be paid at the place of destination.

RATES ON PAMPHLETS, MAGAZINES, ETC.

On pamphlets and magazines, to or from the west coast of South America, the United States postage is four cents, and to or from all other foreign countries (except Great Britain and the British North American Provinces) one cent an ounce or fraction of an ounce, to be collected in all places in the United States.

Newspapers and periodicals to foreign countries (particularly to the continent of Europe) must be sent in narrow bands, open at the sides or end; otherwise they are chargeable with letter postage.

CHAPTER VII.

FORWARDING AND RECEIVING FOREIGN MAILS.

For the mails to and from Europe and countries beyond, the proper offices of dispatch and receipt of mails are New York, Boston, Philadelphia, and San Francisco.

The United States exchange offices for British mails are New York, Boston, Philadelphia, and San Francisco; and the British exchange offices are London, Liverpool, and Southampton.

The mails are conveyed by United States or British packets, as follows, viz.: between Liverpool and Boston, Liverpool and New York, and Southampton and New York.

When the steamers arrive at New York, the mail for that office comprises all the correspondence for the United States, except the cities of Boston and Philadelphia; and in like manner when the steamers arrive at Boston, the mails for that office comprise all the correspondence for the United States, except the cities of New York and Philadelphia.

Under the United States and French postal arrangement, the United States offices of exchange are the same as under the British arrangement, and the French offices of exchange are Havre and the traveling office from Calais to Paris. The correspondence is conveyed as follows:

1. By packets and other steam vessels performing regular service between the ports of France and those of the United States;

2. By United States mail packets plying between the ports of the United States and those of Great Britain; and

3. By British packets and other steam vessels performing regular service between the ports of Great Britain and those of the United States.

Under the United States and Prussian post mail araangement, the United States offices of exchange are New York and Boston, and the French office of exchange is Aix la Chapelle (Aachen). The mails are conveyed closed, via England, by United States and British mail packets.

Under the United States and Bremen postal arrangement, New York is the United States office of exchange, and Bremen the exchange office on the part of that Republic. The mails exchanged are conveyed by United States or Bremen mail steamers running direct between New York and Bremen.

Under the United States and Hamburg arrangement, New York is the United States exchange office, and Hamburg the exchange office of that Republic. The mails are exchanged by United States or Hamburg mail steamers running direct between New York and Hamburg.

For the mails to and from the West Indies, Mexico, foreign ports or points in the Gulf of Mexico, and places on the Atlantic and Pacific coasts of South America, New York, Charleston, Savannah, New Orleans, San Francisco, Monterey, and San Diego are the offices of dispatch and receipt. The mails for the South Pacific are sent by the offices last named in sealed bags to the British Packet Agent, at Panama; and those for the other foreign places named in this paragraph are sent by the same offices in sealed bags to the United States Consul at Kingston, Jamaica, through the agency of the United States Consul at Havana.

CHAPTER VIII.

FRANKING PRIVILEGE.

1. The President, the ex-Presidents, the Vice President, and ex-Vice Presidents, and the widows of deceased Presidents, are allowed to frank letters and documents agreeably to the provisions of the act of March 3, 1825, and subsequent acts.

2. The heads of the U. S. executive departments, the Assistant Postmasters General, and other chiefs of bureaus connected with the government, including the Superintendent and Assistant Superintendent of the Coast Survey, and the General in Chief and Adjutant General of the Army, may send and receive free letters and packages on official business.

3. Members of Congress and Delegates from Territories may send and receive free, during their official terms, and till the first Monday of December following, letters and packages —official or private—not exceeding two ounces in weight, and public documents not weighing over three pounds.

4. The Governors of States may frank laws, records, and documents of their respective legislatures to the Governors of other States.

5. Deputy postmasters may send and receive free letters and packets relating exclusively to their official business; and those whose compensation did not exceed $200 for the previous year may also send free letters written by themselves, and receive free those addressed to themselves, on their private business, not exceeding half an ounce in weight. This does not include the correspondence of any member of their families, nor transient newspapers, or circulars.

6. Publishers of newspapers, pamphlets, and magazines may interchange free a single copy thereof, when not exceeding sixteen ounces in weight.

7. Public documents are those printed by order of either House of Congress, and books or other publications purchased by either or both Houses for the use of their members.

8. The Secretary of the U. S. Senate, and the Clerk of the U. S. House of Representatives, during their official terms, may frank under the same restrictions as members of Congress.

CHAPTER IX.

POSTAGE STAMPS AND ENVELOPES.

1. These are furnished for sale only to postmasters.

2. They are allowed to purchase temporary supplies from other post offices for cash, but are expected, as a rule, to order from the Department such quantity as they think will supply them three months.

3. In selling envelopes, the Department expects of postmasters to be accommodating, but not to lose the fractions of a cent in disposing of small quantities. Accordingly, if they can not readily make change, the purchaser must tender the exact sum.

4. Postmasters are not allowed a commission for selling stamps or stamped envelopes, nor are purchasers in any case allowed a discount thereon. Neither are postmasters permitted to sell stamps for more than their face, or stamped envelopes for more than the Department charges for them.

5. The stamps and envelopes may be used in prepayment of postages to foreign countries in cases where such prepayment in money is allowable.

6. Persons attempting to use a stamp, or stamped envelope, in the payment of postage which has been previously used for a like purpose, subject themselves to a fine of fifty dollars.

7. Letters inclosed in stamped envelopes of the proper denomination may be carried out of the mail provided such envelopes are sealed.

8. Stamps cut or separated from stamped envelopes can not be used in the payment of postage.

9. No application inclosing money to the Department for stamps or stamped envelopes is attended to further than to return the money, and refer the applicant to a postmaster.

10. It is a highly penal offense to counterfeit postage stamps or envelopes.

CHAPTER X.

MISCELLANEOUS.

1. ADVERTISING LETTERS.—Postmasters, the gross receipts of whose offices do not exceed $500 a quarter, are to advertise the uncalled-for letters once in six weeks. Those whose gross receipts are between $500 and $1,000 a quarter, are to advertise such letters monthly. Where such receipts are over $1,000, and less than $7,500 a quarter, the advertisement is to be twice a month; and when they exceed $7,500 a quarter, it is to be weekly.

Such advertisements are to be inserted in one newspaper only, which must be printed in the city, town, or village in which the post office is situated, and must have the largest circulation within the range of delivery of said office of any paper issued weekly or oftener, printed in such city, town, or village. In places where no newspaper is printed, the postmaster is to post manuscript lists in conspicuous positions.

2. DEAD LETTERS.—These are such as have been advertised, and have remained on hand three months or longer; also such as have been refused, or can not be delivered; and those detained for the payment of postage, and not attended to, or for having been placed in the office bearing stamps previously used.

3. LOST LETTERS AND MAIL DEPREDATIONS.—The Department does not hold itself responsible for money and other articles of value sent in the mail; but if they be lost, it will, on proper notice of such mishap, make efforts to discover the same; and, if ascertained to have been stolen, to punish the offender.

In every case of loss by mail, it should be informed without delay of the circumstances. The statement should set forth the names of the writer and depositor of the lost letter, and of the person addressed, as well of the mailing office, and of that to which the letter was directed, the route over which it was to go, the time of mailing, and a description of the valuable inclosures, with any other particulars calculated to aid the Department in investigating the case.

No reported loss is investigated by the Department unless satisfactory evidence is furnished, by a statement of a postmaster, or other disinterested individual, that the missing valuable package was deposited in the post office.

4. COMMISSIONS OF POSTMASTERS.—The rates fixed by law as commissions on the quarterly postages collected, are as follows: Sixty per cent. on the first $100, fifty per cent. on the next $300, forty per cent. on the next $2,000, and fifteen per cent. on sums exceeding $2,400. Seventy per cent. on the first $100 is allowed to offices where the mails arrive by contract between the hours of 9 P.M. and 5 A.M. Postmasters at the general distributing offices are allowed 12½ per cent. on letters received for distribution. The commissions on newspaper postages is fifty per cent. Postmasters whose commissions are less than $500 a quarter receive one cent for the delivery of each manuscript free letter not addressed to themselves; also two mills for each free weekly newspaper delivered to subscribers within the county of publication. No postmaster can retain as commissions over $2,000 a year, nor over $2,000 a year for box rents and other emoluments.

J. F. Smith's Celebrated Works.

Romantic Incidents in the Lives of the Queens of England By the author of "Stanfield Hall," "Amy Lawrence," "Minnie Grey," "Gus Howard," etc. 12mo. Beautiful Illustrations. Extra cloth gilt, $1. The writer, in giving us the History of these eminent women has remarkably exemplified the old adage that "truth is stranger than fiction;"

Harold Tracy, or Phases of Life. Large octavo. Price 50 cents. The above is a romance of the most intense interest; so much so that you can not drop it until you arrive at the end.

Bella Tulawney, or Time Works Wonders Large octavo. Price 50 cents.

Dick Tarleton, or The Last of His Race. Large octavo. Price 25 cents. This is pronounced to be the best novel this celebrated author has ever written.

Marion Barnard, or Lessons of Life. Large octavo. Price 50 cents This novel is equal in interest to any of Mr. Smith's former productions.

Fred Graham, or Masks and Faces. 224 Large octavo pages, beautifully Illustrated. Price 50 cents. Like all the charming Novels by the author of "Minnie Grey" and "Gus Howard," the plot is skillfully contrived, and the characters are truthfully drawn to nature.

Charles Vavasseur, or The Outcast Heir. Large octavo. Paper, price 50 cents. The scene of the present work is laid in England, Russia, Circassia, and Siberia. It is a tale of the late war waged by the Allies against the Empire of Russia. With such dramatic material, the author could not write a poor book.

Henri De La Tour, or The Comrades in Arms. Large octavo. Paper, price 50 cents. A very entertaining novel. The plot is worked up with great ingenuity, and the denouement so skillfully concealed, that the reader cannot even guess at it until he has read the work through.

The Virgin Queen, or The Romance of Royalty. 8vo., 225 pages. 50 cents. This work contains the principal events in the life of Elizabeth, Queen Regnant of England. The author has chosen a theme of the most stirring interest, and the materials which he has gathered together in this volume have given him a vantage ground even over the great masters, whose works, grounded on the romantic features of English history, have rendered their names immortal.

Woman and Her Master. A Novel, containing 228 large octavo pages. 50 cents. This fascinating book is from the graphic pen of the author of "Stanfield Hall." The plot is one of the most absorbing interest and bold startling incidents occur in almost every page. The reader's attention is not allowed to slumber for an instant, but is hurried along with railroad rapidity, from the first to the last chapter.

Fred Vernon, or The Victim of Avarice. Containing over 325 octavo pages. 75 cents. Like all the charming novels by the author of "Minnie Grey," and "Gus Howard," the plot is skilfully contrived, and the characters are truthfully drawn to nature.

Temptation, or The Unknown Heiress Large double column octavo. Price 50 cents. This work, by the author of the famous "Stanfield Hall" is written in his very happiest vein. The plot is most artfully designed, and worked out with consummate skill.

Harry Ashton, or The Will and the Way. Beautifully Illustrated. 50 cents. This is another novel by the gifted author of "Gus Howard," and surpasses, in point of ingenuity of intrigue and skillful combination, any of this writer's former efforts.

Ellen De Vere, or The Way of the Will. 200 large octavo pages. 50 cents. This is a deeply interesting novel; yet the author has not, in a single instance, overdrawn a character, or sacrificed a single touch of nature, for effect. Its merits will insure a rapid and continued demand for it.

Fred Arden, or The Jesuit's Revenge. A Novel, containing over 200 octavo pages. 50 cents. In point of thrilling interest, boldness of conception, acuteness of reasoning, splendor of imagery, mellowness of coloring, and creative power, "Fred Arden" will favorably compare with the highest and most brilliant fiction.

Minnie Grey, or Who is the Heir? Beautifully Illustrated from designs by Gilbert. 215 octavo pages. 50 cents. The London Literary World says:—"Minnie Grey" as a literary performance, is well worthy of a place beside the noble productions of Scott and Dumas.

Gus Howard, or How to Win a Wife. With Illustrations from designs by Gilbert. 210 octavo pages. 50 cents. The reader's attention is secured at the very outset, by the mysterious incidents occurring at the birth of an heir to an ancient family; and the interest, thus awakened, never flags until the last page of the entrancing tale is reached.

Rochester, or The Merry Days of England. Illustrated, containing 200 pages. 50 cents. The great interest of the plot—the development of Court intrigue in love and politics—the perils and adventures of the hero and heroine of the story—the plots and counterplots of the Cavaliers and Roundheads, and the strange incidents that befell the "Merry Monarch" in his wanderings among the roughest of his subjects, form the groundwork of one of the best books this author ever wrote.

Amy Lawrence, or The Freemason's Daughter. Beautifully Illustrated. 1 vol., containing 170 large pages closely printed. Paper, 50 cents. This author has produced a work which is entitled to a highly distinguished position among productions of its class. In thoughtful and large conceptions—in number and variety of characters—in copiousness of description, ingenuity of intrigue, and skillful combination of incidents, there are few modern novels with which we are acquainted which will not suffer by comparison with "Amy Lawrence."

Stanfield Hall. A Romantic Historical Novel. By the author of "Amy Lawrence, or the Freemason's Daughter," "Minnie Grey," etc. 2 vols. This book contains 432 closely-printed large octavo pages, and is illustrated with 16 fine engravings on tinted paper. Paper, $1. Among the multifarious productions of modern romance writers, this noble work stands pre-eminently foremost. It is divided into three parts—each portion illustrative of one of the most marked and famous epochs in the history of England.

"INQUIRE WITHIN" is one of the most valuable and extraordinary volumes ever presented to the American public and embodies nearly FOUR THOUSAND FACTS, in the most of which any person living will find instruction, aid, and entertainment. "INQUIRE WITHIN" is sold at the low price of one dollar, and yet it contains 436 pages of closely printed matter, and is handsomely and strongly bound. It is a Doctor, a Gardener, a Schoolmaster, a Dancing Master, an Artist, a Naturalist, a Modeller, a Cook, a Lawyer, a Surgeon, a Chess-Player, a Chemist, a Cosmetician, a Brewer, an Accountant, an Architect, a "Letter-Writer," a "Hoyle," and a Universal Guide to all kinds of Useful and Fancy Employment, Amusement, and Money-making. Besides all this information—and we have not room to give an idea of a hundredth part of it—IT CONTAINS SO MANY VALUABLE AND USEFUL RECIPES, that an enumeration of them requires SEVENTY-TWO COLUMNS OF FINE TYPE FOR THE INDEX.

"INQUIRE WITHIN" is no collection of ancient sayings and Recipes, but the whole is fresh and new, and suited to the present times. As a book to keep in the family for reference, it is unequalled, comprising as it does all kinds of Books of Information in a single volume.

LIVE AND LEARN.

216 pages. Cloth. 12mo. Price 50 cents.

A Guide for all who wish to speak and write correctly; particularly intended as a book of reference for the solution of difficulties connected with Grammar, Composition, Punctuation, &c., &c.; with explanations of Latin and French words and phrases of frequent occurrence in newspapers, reviews, periodicals and books in general, containing examples of One Thousand Mistakes of daily occurrence in speaking, writing, and pronunciation.

"Live and Learn" is a most useful book, designed as a guide to grammar, composition, and punctuation. So few people speak or write really good grammar, and fewer still punctuate decently, that a book that informs them how to do so—and not only that indicates their faults, but shows them how they are to be corrected—cannot fail to be popular: there is not a person, indeed, who might not learn something from it. As a book of reference, "Live and Learn" will settle many disputes. It ought to be on every table, and be particularly recommended to the young, before habit makes common blunders uncommonly hard to cure.

Books for the Ladies.

THE AMERICAN HOME COOK-BOOK.

Containing several hundred excellent Recipes. The whole based on many years' Experience of an American Housewife. Illustrated with Engravings. Price 25 cents.

It is a book of 128 pages, and is cheap at 25 cents. We expect to sell a very large number at this low price.

LADIES' GUIDE TO CROCHET.

By Mrs. Ann S. Stephens. Oblong, pp. 112, beautifully bound in extra cloth, gilt. Price 75 cents.

Copiously illustrated with original and very choice Designs in Crochet, &c., printed in colors, separate from the letter-press, on tinted paper. Also with numerous wood-cuts printed with the letter-press, explanatory of terms, &c.

This is by far the best work on the subject of Crochet yet published. There are plenty of other books containing Crochet Patterns; but the difficulty is, they do not have the necessary instructions how to work them, and are, therefore, useless. This work, however, supplies this much-felt and glaring deficiency, and has the terms in Crochet so clearly explained, that any Crochet Pattern, however difficult, may be worked with ease.

Works by the Author of "Zaidee."

ADAM GRAEME, OF MOSSGRAY.

12mo. Cloth. Price $1.00.

The characters are painted in bold relief, and seem to live, move, and speak before you. Not one is overdrawn, and yet each comes up to the popular standard, in point of interest, individualization, and spirit. The tale is, indeed, "sad, high, and working; full of state and woe;" but it is pleasant enough for all that, and the sober, truthful earnestness with which it is related, will at once communicate itself to the mind of the most fastidious and hypercritical peruser of modern volumes.

MAGDALEN HEPBURN; A STORY OF THE SCOTTISH REFORMATION.

By Mrs. Oliphant, Author of "Zaidee," etc. 12mo. Cloth, $1.00.

This charming Novel, by the author of "Zaidee," will be welcomed by all who have had the pleasure of reading the former production. The quaint originality, the healthy and cheerful religious tone, and charming simplicity and good sense of this volume, will render it a general and permanent favorite,—a work which will be read as long as any volume of our time. We know of no fiction, in fact, that we would sooner recommend; for, while it will fascinate all who merely read for amusement, it will delight as well as improve those who seek for something even in a novel. It is fascinating from beginning to ending, and no reader will lay it down, after perusal, without wishing the author had extended its pages.

New Works by Miss E. Marryatt.

DAUGHTER OF CAPTAIN MARRYATT.

TEMPER, A TALE.

HENRY LYLE; OR, LIFE AND EXISTENCE.

12mo. Cloth. $1.00.

The above novels, by the talented daughter of the late Captain Marryatt, were written in compliance with the wishes of her father, expressed a short time previous to his death; and the fair authoress alludes to this circumstance, by way of apology, in the preface to "Temper." We predict for them a wide-spread popularity. They are original in style, truly moral and religious in tone, and are calculated to accomplish much good, as the author aims some telling blows at the tendency of the present generation towards Infidelity, and other modern evils.

Miscellaneous Books, by Good Authors.

TIT FOR TAT.

The most remarkable Work of our Times. A Reply to "Uncle Tom's Cabin," and "Dred." By a Lady of New Orleans. Large 12mo. Cloth, $1.00.

The object of "Tit for Tat" is eminently humane, patriotic, and just. It is not anti-north, or anti-south. It is simply a reply to the exaggerated pictures of slavery in "Uncle Tom," and "Dred." It proves that worse slavery exists in Europe than any to be found in the United States. But the manner of our author is different. Her pen was not dipped in gall; it was not corroded with the acid of spleen or prejudice. Every line breathes candor; every chapter teaches a lesson. There is no vulgar abuse; but a series of plain facts, verified by authentic documents, on which is woven a romance of stirring power and dramatic interest.

THE ARTIST'S BRIDE; OR, THE PAWNBROKER'S HEIR

A Novel, by Emerson Bennett. 12mo. Cloth. 420 pages. Price $1.00

If Emerson Bennett had never written his many delightful and thrilling stories of border life, of prairie scenes, and Indian warfare, this new story of "The Artist's Bride," would have placed his name on the record as one of the best of American novelists. "The Artist's Bride" is one of the most thrilling native productions we have ever read, and yet the incidents are so true to nature, so life-like, that the reader can scarcely realize the fact that he is reading fiction. The sketches of the "Brilliant Heiress," and of the interview between the Lawyer and his Student, possess the most absorbing interest. The persons introduced in this narrative are striking and never-to-be-forgotten types of individuals we meet with daily. The amusement to be gathered from these pages, is as great as is the moral information bestowed. Altogether, Emerson Bennett has done himself infinite merit by this production.

THE PILGRIMS OF WALSINGHAM.

A Romance of the Middle Ages, from the accomplished pen of Agnes Strickland. Large 12mo. 460 pages. $1.00.

Truly a charming book! Full of the profoundest interest, yet not one improbable incident—not one prurient idea. You will sooner find spots upon the leaves of the silvery lily, than an impure sentence in a book by this author.—Buffalo Courier.
